President's Message

As we near the end of another unsettled year we who use our hobby of numismatics as an escape from the troubles and cares of everyday life can give thanks that sober and scientific advances have taken place during the year to enhance our art.

The Chicago Coin Club has also made forward strides increasing its membership each month and opening our membership to junior members. Several of these have proven to be real students of numismatics. New quarters have also made meetings more pleasant.

Thanks are due, and are here sincerely extended, to hard working officers and committees.

It has been a distinct honor to serve as your presiding officer.

GLENN R. OSTRANDER,
President

Illinois Numismatically

Our Club has undertaken to record the numismatic items issued in or pertaining to the State of Illinois. In this issue of "The Bulletin" the second installment of that project is presented. In succeeding issues other phases of Illinois numismatics will be covered.

Every member is urged to contribute to this work by reporting items in their collections or Illinois items they know of or have seen listed in auction catalogs, magazine articles, books, etc., to the committee members of the various departments scheduled for future publication. If, for example, you have a medal of Illinois issue, describe it using a 3x5 index card, and turn that card over to one of the members of the medal and token committee. Members of the committee are as follows:

General History—Elston G. Bradfield; Early Store Cards—Ernest Jonas; Early Paper Money—Lee F. Hewitt; Civil War Tokens—Ray Haggenjos; National Bank Notes—Harry X Boosel, M. E. Jackson, A. E. Bebee; Columbian Exposition Medals and Tokens—Arthur Rutz; Medals and Tokens in general—Clifford Lindall, John Giello, Dr. Reich, J. Henri Ripstra; Money Panic and Depression Scrip—Earl Barger; U.S. Coins pertaining to Illinois—Earl C. Brown; Sales Tax Tokens—Glenn Ostrander; Wooden Money—Edward Amidon; Numismatic books in public libraries—M. E. Powills; Numismatic collections in institutions—Glenn Smedley; Illinois-issued Lincoln items—I. T. Kopicki, J. Henri Ripstra; Numismatic organizations, activities, famous collections and personalities—Col. Curtis, William G. Rayson, M. Vernon Sheldon, C. E. Green, J. Henri Ripstra.

IN MEMORIAM

MARIE BOYER ANA—2154; CCC—A65

Mrs. Alden Scott Boyer (Marie G. Boyer) passed away on May 1, 1950 in her 65th year. "Marie" as she was generally known in the Chicago Coin Club and The American Numismatic Ass'n was interested in numismatics from 1914 and was the third lady to join the Club. She attended many A.N.A. conventions often alone when Alden could not go. She left a host of friends.

She was born in St. Ausgar, Iowa, became a school teacher, married, had no children and lived in Chicago since 1912.

She was perhaps the most expert of the collectors of old lace and lectured on the subject and exhibited her large lace collection before groups large and small. She also lectured on "The Romance of Perfumes"—and exhibited her large collection of perfume bottles and perfumer's raw materials. She always showed a perfume bottle, makers mould and the tools that went with it and one of the bottles made in that mould. Except for charity affairs, Marie charged a fee for these lectures. She always said "If you do them free they will run you raggedy and they won't appreciate them." In many cases she repeated the lectures before the same groups. At the Art Institute of Chicago she was a regular speaker. She also lectured on "The Romance of the Daguerreotype."

Marie was active in many charitable affairs in Chicago. She was elected President of The Pen Women of America for the Chicago Division in the spring of 1950 in Washington, D.C.

It was at a banquet that she caught a cold from a draft of air conditioning that caused her death.

THOMAS F. ROBINSON CCC—R374

Thomas F. Robinson, a Resident Member of Chicago Coin Club since June 4, 1941, died in Hot Springs, Arkansas, April 9, 1950 at the age of 67. He was a collector of U.S. coins.

He was born in Denver, Colorado, moved to Ottawa, Ill., while very young and later moved to Chicago when about 20 years of age.

He went to work for Swift & Co. and for a while was Superintendent of the oleo plant at Edmundton, Alberta, Canada. He later returned to Chicago and worked for many years in the Standards Department. He retired several years ago because of ill health and spent the last two or three Winters in Hot Springs. Mrs. Robinson passed away in 1949 and "Tommy" followed about a year later. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Josephine Rose and Mrs. Rita Kirlcic. To quote Mrs. Rose, "He liked coins, flowers, and people."

Early Illinois Store Cards

BY ERNEST JONAS AND RAY HAGGENJOS

For some unknown reason the collection of Store Cards of our early merchants of Illinois has long been ignored by collectors of numismatic items. That little enthusiasm is shown for this interesting series is readily manifested by their absence from the present day auction catalogues, fixed price lists and magazine advertisements.

So little has ever been written of them and so little publicity given them it is of no small wonder this condition exists. This article does not intend to be extremely technical but is to serve chiefly as an introductory excursus relative to these tokens for some collector to do a more extended research along these lines and also to reawaken interest in this series.

Early Illinois Bank Notes

By LEE F. HEWITT

The first bank established in Illinois was the Bank of Illinois at Shawneetown which was granted a charter by the Territorial Legislature on December 26, 1816. The second bank to open in the state was the Bank of Edwardsville which was chartered on January 9, 1818, then it was followed by the establishment of the Bank of Kaskaskia and the Bank of Cairo.

These four banks comprise the very early Illinois banks and all four issued paper money. More specimens of the Bank of Cairo have been preserved for collectors than of all the others. The Bank of Illinois went out of business in 1823 and redeemed and destroyed all notes presented for payment.

The Free Banking Act of 1851 was responsible for a large number of Illinois banks and paper money. One of the requirements, however, of the Act was that security for paper money be deposited with the State Auditor. By 1860, chartered Illinois banks had a note circulation of $12,320,694. With the outbreak of the Civil War the paper money of those banks who had Southern State bonds for security, dropped in value and by January 1862 only three banks' paper money was at par. The advertisement from "Chicago Tribune" reproduced herewith shows the discounts on paper money of various Illinois banks. Nevertheless the banks were liquidated orderly and by 1869 the State Auditor reported that only $531.00 in bank notes were outstanding.

This small amount accounts for the rarity of Illinois bank notes. Of many banks no notes are known and of others only engraver's proof specimens are known, reversing the usual case of a proof note being rarer than a circulated piece. Today the minimum numismatic market value of any

The Outstanding Value

In Coin Publications

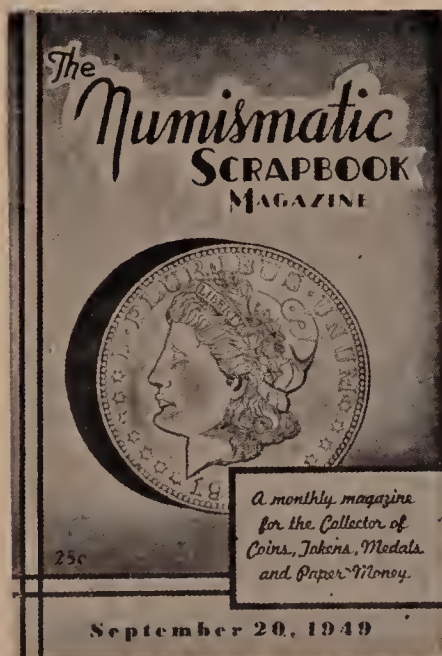

Over one thousand pages each year

Containing authoritative articles by leading American collectors and students—finely printed—generously illustrated.

While United States subjects are emphasized, each issue is “balanced” with a variety of articles on a wide-range of numismatic subjects.

General news and organization activities are covered in a concise manner by correspondents from coast to coast. Then, too, the active collector will profit from the advertising columns which represent the country’s leading dealers.
